Mrs. George H. Hodges has invited the Topeka Federation of Women to have an all-day session at the Governor's house some time next month.
The women of the home economics department will be assistant hostesses, and they will furnish and serve a buffet luncheon to all members of the Federation. Business and department meetings will be held in the morning, and a program will be given in the afternoon.
The home economics department, of which Mrs. H. O. Garvey is chairman, and Mrs. John Chaney vice chairman, had a meeting Tuesday at Mrs. Garvey's home, to make plans for the No-will have in charge.

Theta fraternity were guests at a din-

A hint of a return to the Moyaen Age effect in gowns, popular several years ago is shown in this white charmeuse gown, its skirt veiled with chiffon.
The long blouse of charmeuse, much like a girl's middy blouse in cut, fitted down over a tunic of white chiffon bordered with white grosgrain ribbon.

A pronounced medieval effect is produced by the quaint embroidery in colors which borders the basque. This basque is sleeveless and has wide armholes. The sleeves are of chiffon and are bordered with bands of silk embroidery. With this is worn a tote of white ostrich feathers.

Mrs. Albert Patten has returned from Wichita, Kan., where she was the guest

Rousseau Burch, and Mrs. Carl Merrick.

The date of the tea to be given by the Social Service club is Tuesday, October 27, and it will be held in Kelto the number of about two thousand are expected. Music will be furnished

Jones. The patronesses will be Mrs.
George Parkhurst, Mrs. Silas Porter,

Next week will be Y. W. C. A. week at Washburn college. Two special chapel meetings, a reception at the White House and a cabinet dinner are among the things planned.
The special college guests next week are Miss Abby Shaw Mayhew and Miss Katherine Halsey. Miss Halsey is the second student secretary for this, the West Central branch of association work, and Miss Mayhew has just returned from a two years' investigation in China.
Monday Miss Mayhew will speak to all the Washburn students at the chapel exercises. On Tuesday the young men of the college will be excused from chapel attendance, and Miss Mayhew will give a special talk to the young women. Miss Mayhew is an interesting person in herself, and has had some unusually interesting experiences in China, so the chapel services next week will be especially attractive.

On Monday afternoon the advisory board which is composed of the women on the faculty and the wives of the men on the faculty, will give an informal reception for Miss Mayhew at the home of Mrs. D. L. McEachron.

nese curios to show the guests.

The members of the Althean Literary society of Washburn college are giving a tea for the new girls of the college at the home of Miss Mar-Whittemore, 1815 College, this afternoon. The officers of the society are:
President, Miss Isabel Marsh; vice president, Miss Margaret Owens; secretary, Miss Mildred Cephart; treasurer, Vera Campbell, and chairman of the social committee, Miss Frances Cornick.

Mrs. John Graham, Miss May Graham and Mrs. Douglas Graham are hostesses at a sewing party this afternoon at their home, 1123 Harrison street. The guests and hostesses are making the Red Cross hospital gowns.

There is no word from Paris this session to guide the modiste, but there is the war to furnish weird patterns for women's wardrobes. It is not strictly carried out for that purpose, but that is one of the results nevertheless. You are distinctly a la mode if you wear a torpedo turban of steel blue, trimmed with smoke-colored plumes set backward like the ears of a belligerent cat.
Or a chapeau of siege grey velvet may be crowned in cut steel, with a cockade of quilled ribbons fore and aft.
As for colors, there are Kaiser blue, Russian green, while the Cossack tunic is much in vogue.
